Interactive Cooking with Ivan the Horrible and his Motley Crew

So many of our guests want to immerse themselves in the joys of food and despite being converts to the delights of eating have expressed a desire to have small intimate classes with our Head Chef Evan Coosner and learn about the basics of kitchen. Understanding that a commercial kitchen can be overwhelming (particularly when in full service), Evan (nicknamed Ivan by a guest who survived him) has designed courses for small groups (minimum of two people) and will host the course in the owner's domestic kitchen. Interactive cooking sessions are only available to in house guests.

Pasta Master Class (Ideal for Couples / Friends / Groups)

Learn to make basic pasta dough from scratch. Go on to make Ravioli, Tortellini, Capeletti as well as various fillings for them all. Roll out Linguini and finish off with sauce. The final highlight to this delight is learning to make the Granny Mouse Signature dish of Mushroom and Paremisan Gnocchi.

Ready Ivan Cook Competition (Perfect for Team Building / Couples)

Divide yourself into teams and get ready for three hours of gourmet adventures. Start off with a mystery basket of ingredients and with the expertise of the sous chefs of Granny Mouse create your culinary masterpiece.

Learn new techniques and cutting edge plating styles under the guidance of Ivan the Horrible and his motley crew.

The winning dish will be featured on the Eaves fine dining menu for the evening, so that everyone else can experience your success. Ultimate bragging rights.

Foolproof Tarts & Biscuits (Perfect for Team Building / Couples and Kiddies)

Pastry, tarts and biscuits are a forgotten art to most of us. Instead of learning from your Granny, let our Pastry Chef teach you how to make the "perfect treat" every time.
